

MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 2009

Totally Featuring Kimleigh Smith Directed by Paula Killen

A Review by Andrea R. Garrison - onlinewithandrea

Totally the one woman show written and performed by Kimleigh Smith is excellent. Knowing the subject matter (being gang raped in college) before witnessing her incredible performance at the Teatro La Tea Theater in New York City, I had anticipated feeling a bit somber about it. Actually after seeing this play I was amazed at the range of emotions that I experienced while watching this totally awesome performance. Kimleigh is a fantastic writer, a wonderful story teller, a great singer, dancer and an amazing actress. If you wait to meet her after the show you will find her to be an extremely warm, beautiful, genuine person with a lot of energy, heart and spirit. I suggest you take the time to experience Totally. You will be totally entertained, totally impressed and totally moved. She will make you laugh, cry and totally cheer her on as she makes this inspiring transformation from being broken to being whole again. Totally should be on every college campus as well as every major theater in every major city including Broadway in NYC. For more information on Totally and Kimleigh Smith please visit her website totallykimleigh.com. Also learn more about Kimleigh in the onlinewithandrea interview. Thank you for staying connected to onlinewithandrea!!!

<http://www.blogtalkradio.com/onlinewithandrea/2009/08/24/Totally-Kimleigh-Smith>